

the pioneer

LUCKNOW | TUESDAY | SEPTEMBER 29, 2015

SMS holds VRCCQC-2015

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ VARANASI

The third Varanasi Centre Convention of 'Quality Concepts' (VRCCQC-2015) was organised under the joint auspices of Quality Circle Forum of India (QCFI) and School of Management Sciences (SMS) at SMS here on Sunday. QCFI is an international group of 13 countries which with its 26 branches organises different functions on quality concepts. The function was inaugurated by Divisional Railway Manager (DRM) of Varanasi division of North Eastern Railway (NER) SK Kashyap, while VRCCQC was opened by Director (Personnel), Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited (UPPCL) Radhye Mohan.

Speaking on the occasion, Kashyap threw light on the quality concepts and said that if the same have been implemented in small and medium enterprises along with heavy industries, the country would march towards prosperity. He said that it is the basic mantra of the success of Make-in-India programme. He said that quality should be eco-friendly. Radhye Mohan appealed to the social organisations to cooperate in quality field. The guest of honour was SMS

QCFI convention being held at SMS in Varanasi on Monday

Pioneer

Director Prof PN Jha. He said that for overall development of every individual, quality concepts should be implemented first in the education field and the same should be included in curricula.

President of the forum Dr Ashok Rai also stressed the need for inclusion of quality concepts in school curricula. He said that the university should also include the same in different courses. In the workshop about 400 participants in 60 teams presented their quality circle models through multimedia and among the teams which participated were from BHEL, SAIL, NTPC, Tata Motors, Parle, Hindalco, Birla Corporation, Bajaj Group, Adani Group, Mother Dairy, JP Group and different local school groups.

The function was also addressed by SMS registrar Sanjay Gupta. Secretary AM Chakravorti said that the benefits of quality concepts would be seen soon. The function was conducted by Vijay Krishna. The function was also attended by joint secretary of QCFI Aruna Singh, DN Pandey, Dr RN Singh, Dr Arun Singh, Prof Amitabh Tiwari, Dr Ashok Pandey, Rajeev Malhotra, PS Modi VK Singh, H Khan, Nigam Shresth, Vishwajeet Mishra and Ashwani Rai.

APPOINTED: The Vice-Chancellor of Banaras Hindu University (BHU), Prof GC Tripathi has appointed assistant registrar Moti Chandra Prasad as nodal officer to see the smooth implementing of Swachh Bharat Mission on the university campus. The mission was launched by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi on October 2 last year. This year on Gandhi Jayanti, special drive would be launched on university premises.