

Press Releases

Around 500 delegates to attend QCFI Convention at School of Management Sciences, Varanasi

VARANASI: The 'Quality Circle Forum of India' (QCFI) Kanpur Chapter is organizing 23rd Kanpur Chapter Convention on Quality Circles in association with School of Management Sciences (SMS), Varanasi at its Khushipur Campus on Sunday, September 30, 2012.

QCFI is recognized as the institution representing the Quality Circle Movement in India. They aim at improving, enriching and uplifting the quality of work life and provide opportunities for self-development and cultivating and promoting a high standard of ethics amongst its members. In this 23rd chapter convention about 100 Quality circle teams represented by 500 members & delegates are expected to participate from different corporate bodies.

The Convention would be inaugurated by the Director of SMS Varanasi, Prof. P. N. Jha. Other Guests of Honour who would be present include Dr. Indu Singh, Dr. R. C. Agrawal (National President-QCFI), Prof. A. K. Mittal (Vice-President-QCFI), Shri D. K. Srivastava (Executive Director-QCFI), Shri Tarun Agrawal (secretary-QCFI), Dr. Ashok Rai (President Varanasi Chapter-QCFI), members Shri Vijay Krishna, Dr. Parag Vajpayee, Smt Aruna Singh, Dr. A. K. Pandey, Shri D. N. Pandey besides the Registrar of SMS Varanasi, Shri Sanjay Gupta. Senior Faculty members of SMS Varanasi would be chairing the different parallel academic sessions.