SMS IN SINGAPORE

MESSAGE FROM DIRECTOR

The life-cycle of a B-school begins afresh in a thrilling ambience with the arrival of the month of July for opening the cerebral chapters in order to celebrate a real academic exuberance. It is indeed a generic experience to welcome the new faces and to see them romping around in the cozy habitat of the green campus of SMS-empire both at Varanasi and Lucknow. The new issue in the third year of SMS newsletter is once again brimmed with the glimpses of plural orientation programmes for the new entrants in our PGDM, PGDM-IB, PGDM-IRM & PGDM-RM courses to the freshers' parties, teachers' day celebrations, 15th August National Festival organizations, international industrial visits & seminars, alumni meets, SMS winning the prestigious Pride of the Industry Awards at Mumbai, hosting HR-Conclave, setting new canons of cultural talents and extra curricular activities by our students during the mega events of the 15th Foundation Day of SMS, and other similar interesting episodes.

Understanding its hortatory obligations during the span of its exponential growth, the SMS-family, an outstanding leader among the peers, has been extremely conscious towards making an honest transition in its roles from dissemination of the knowledge to the creation of the knowledge with a similar robust expertise. The days are not very far when SMS will adorn a seamless robe of excellence in the pious endeavour.

I close with warm wishes.

Academic collaboration with Claflin University, South Carolina, USA

Known for imparting quality education SMS with its glittering brand image has signed a bi-lateral academic agreement at International level with the well known Claflin University, one of the oldest U.S Universities, with a purpose to establish a long term mutually beneficial partnership in academic areas. The signatories to this bi-lateral academic agreement were Henry N. Tisdale, President and Prof. Zia Hussan, Vice-President, Claflin University, Prof. P. N. Jha, Director and Dr. Amit Gautam, Associate Professor, School of Management Sciences, Varanasi. Forbes has ranked Claflin University as one of the best colleges in U.S.A. based on education offered to students.

The important points which are covered in the MOU are –Both the institutes would consider and implement Faculty and Student Exchange Programs in accordance with existing government and accreditation policy, both institutes will cooperate in the area of training and capacity building at the partner institution as much as possible, both institutes will encourage collaboration amongst faculty in areas of research and curriculum development. The other important point which is covered in the agreement is that both the institutes will collaborate in other areas as feasible on issues germane to higher education.

International Visit to Singapore (26th Oct-1st Nov 2009)

School of Management Sciences, Varanasi organised its first international study tour to Singapore for its students, to acquaint the students with the international business scenario in the globalised era. The 15 member group was headed by Mr. Shardul Chaubey, Sr. Lecturer, SMS. The one week tour had students from different streams such as PGDM, PGDM-IB, PGDM-IRM & PGDM-RM. The 15 member group departed on 26th October, 2009 from Varanasi to Calcutta and there from to Singapore.

The international study tour was a pioneering attempt by SMS to send its students to gain international exposure. By organizing such international study tour SMS has already emerged as one of the very few management institutes in the country which is committed for the overall development of the students. It is the only institute in Eastern U.P. to initiate such international visits.

On 28th morning the group boarded their flight and headed towards THE FINE CITY-SINGAPORE. The students after an enthralled and exuberant 3.5 hours long journey reached Changi International Airport, Singapore.

Unique is the word that best captures Singapore, a dynamic city rich in contrast and colour. Singapore is a harmonious blend of culture, cuisine, arts and architecture. Located in the heart of the fascinating southeast Asia, a bridge between east and west for centuries, continues to embrace modernity with tradition today. Brimming with unbridled energy and bursting with exciting events the city offered countless unique, memorable experiences to the visiting group.

The group visited the internationally acclaimed world's first Night Safari which is an hour long non stop night action. The group experienced close encounters with creatures of the night in their nocturnal habitat spread over 40 hectares of lush rainforest. The students enjoyed a tram ride in the Safari and also enjoyed a heart-pounding tribal performance. Then the students went the famous Sentosa island spread over 500 hectares for attracting tourists in the country. The students enjoyed a Dolphin show at the Dolphin lagoon and then went to a museum-"The images of Singapore", the famous "UNDER WATER WORLD" and the "SONG OF THE SEA" at Sentosa beach. The students also enjoyed the colorful night life of Singapore. The sun dimmed but the fun didn't. As the night falls, life begins in many quarters of Singapore. The students had hard party and freaky time till wee hours of the morning. The students had the chance to visit the very unique 24-hour shopping mall-The Mustafa Centre. The students enjoyed the city tour and visited places like the Parliament of Singapore, the Singapore Flyer, Palawan beach and National University of Singapore(NUS).

The students visited multi-national companies, such as Volvo, Catter Pillar, Sandvik and the international port at Singapore. The students learned and experienced the socio cultural and economic aspects which impact the business in Singapore. After 5 days of hullah bullah in Singapore the students finally returned to Varanasi on 1st Nov 2009 with rich and valuable knowledge and memories to preserve for life long.

In a week long orientation programme, new batches of PGDM, PGDM-International Business, PGDM-Insurance & Risk Management and PGDM-Retail Management programmes were inaugurated with two day orientation programmes for new students. In each PGDM programme new budding managers were told different dimensions of corporate world and management education by the industry stalwarts and noted educationist of the country. Students were also given tips and blessed for the future.

P. Singh, Executive Secretary, SMS Varanasi. Dr. M. P. Singh, Executive Secretary & Prof. P. N. Jha, Director, further felicitated the Patron with a memento and shawl.

Speaking in the felicitation function veteran leader said academicians are the real change agents of the society who not only change individual but also help in re-establishing the moral values in the society. Further speaking in the function Dr. Singh said presently our society is facing problems of identity and cultural shocks due to diversity in the environment and therefore maintaining the rich and varied heritage, value system and the ethos of the society is an uphill task. Thus the role of the present day academicians is challenging and two fold. He also praised and congratulated SMS for its enormous growth in the recent past and establishing itself as a centre of excellence in the management education both at the national and international level.

(Dr. Singh speaking to the audience)

“GURUKRIPA”- TEACHERS’ DAY CELEBRATION

In India, 5th September is celebrated as Teachers’ Day every year. This day is dedicated to former president and a great teacher of India, Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan whose birthday came to be observed as Teachers’ Day in the country. SMS celebrated this memorable day with great zeal and enthusiasm. “Gurukripa”, the theme of the auspicious day marked the sign of respect to ‘Gurus’.

The students organised various cultural programmes dedicated to the teachers. In the end a heart touching dance performed on the different colours of Indian festivals and Indian personalities was presented.

On the auspicious occasion SMS had an artist of repute Ms. Padma Talvarkar (National level singer) with two of her students in its mist. Their personal endeavour made the program memorable and successful. Through her vibrant classical singing she enchanted the audience and students present.

The milieu was full of vibrant colors of joy. Teachers were taken back to their college days and were not behind in showcasing their respective talents. The unmatched show put up by the students of SMS and the benign presence and blessings of the teachers made day memorable and everlasting. In the end the students felicitated all the teachers of the Institute.

FRESHERS' PARTY- “LAKHSHYA”

Fun, frolic, jovial smiles and high spirits –that's what is called starting an academic year in style. A fun filled scene was witnessed at the fresher's party at the SMS campus. The seniors whole heartedly welcomed the faculty member and the freshers and the auspicious day began with lighting of the lamp and garlanding of Goddess Saraswati.

Then partying sprints of youngster soared higher. The music, mesmerizing songs, skit, mimicry and flash freezing lights along with the excitement made the party unbridled and exuberant. Even after dancing to their hearts' content and stuffing themselves with delicious food, exhaustion did not have any role to play.

(Organizing Committee members)

It was a day of love, affection, trust and above all togetherness. The program was well received by the students. With this party, the final year students led the thread of hope, guidance and hardwork to the freshers.

Then the time factor led the party to wound up and leave its rosy impressions on everyone's heart. The party scripts a beginning of celebrations and dedication. Students would be encompassing for coming crucial two years of makeover.

Expert Talk on INDO-US Economic Relations (Sept 16th 2009)

(Mr. Richard Silver)

At School of Management Sciences every possible step is taken to shorten the distance between the students and the external world. One such step was the arrangement of an expert talk on “INDO-US Economic relations- The road ahead”. Dignitaries present on the occasion were Ms. Nicole Weber, The Economic Officer of American embassy in India and Mr. Richard

(Ms. Nicole Weber)

Silver. Apart from being a high voltage knowledge session for the PG students of School Of Management Sciences, Varanasi, the day was of high importance for the arrived dignitaries as the event was organized on America Day. SMS a contemporary management institute never forgets it's own Indian ethics and spirituality. So as usual the event started off with lightening of the lamp and garlanding the statue of goddess Saraswati by the dignitaries accompanied by Prof. P. N. Jha, Director, SMS, Varanasi.

Ms. Nicole Weber's delegation made the students aware of the Indo-US economic relations and took the listeners to a new world where brotherhood among nations and healthy environment was easily visualized. The meet micro-observably provided incessant methods and measures for cordial ties between the two nations. On the occasion SMS paid full attention to show the credibility of Indian management system.

Industrial Visit to HINDALCO by PGDM-IB students (Sept 26th 2009)

Enhancing a step towards the goal of complementing industrial exposure to it's students along with the exhaustive theoretical curriculum, SMS, Varanasi organised an industrial visit to HINDALCO Industries in Renukoot, U.P, for PGDM-IB, IInd Semester students on 26th September, 2009.

Students were shown various operational activities like extrusions, re-melting, refining, casting, hot rolling, etc. The students took keen interest in knowing about various manufacturing processes and asked various questions to the HR Manager of Hindalco who was demonstrating the various processes to the students. Key areas where students took interest were consumption and discharge, reuse, effluent-monitoring, measurement and sustenance and environmental friendly waste disposal. Awareness of the linkages between society, environment, production and manufacturing helped the students as well as the teachers to realize the larger perspectives of industrialization. Members of Hindalco were very helpful to the visiting team and provided all the necessary details the students enquired for and made the students abreast of new knowledge and techniques, processes involved in manufacturing, innovations and future prospects of the organization.

Industrial visit to PARLE Industries by PGDM students

Yummy taste of HIDE&SEEK, sweet and salty KRACK JACK, goli rainbow wali POPPINS, swad ki pukar KISMIBAR, etc. All of them stand for one name- PARLE. PARLE-India's most preferred brand for biscuits, candies and toffees was the destination of the first industrial visit of students of PGDM-15th batch.

The students were taken to the unit of PARLE biscuits located in the Ramnagar Industrial area. The students along with 2 faculty members went on to the visit with high spirits. After reaching the factory the group was escorted to the factory premises by the coordinator Mr. Ajit Srivastava. Then the group was taken to the main part of the factory where manufacturing of biscuits was in process. After a brief session in the manufacturing part of the unit for about 40-50 minutes, the group was taken to an auditorium where a cartoon movie was shown to the students on the history, success story and procedure of making biscuits, candies and toffees. The students were given information on the workforce of PARLE, awards and accolades won, headquarter, location of other manufacturing units, location of international offices, total production, etc. The thrilling and knowledgeable experience of the visit was of immense help to the students in better understanding the dynamics of work frontier.

Guest Lecture by Mr. Suneel Keshwani

SMS organised a guest lecture on 13th Sept. 2009 for the PG students. Prolific speaker Mr. Suneel Keshwani, Trainer, ET Services, New Delhi, was the speaker for the occasion. He freely interacted with the students and made them aware of the various facets of communication skills and the importance of good presentation skills in the corporate arena. Communication indeed plays a pivotal role in shaping one's career in the corporate world. It has become the essence of management and exploring the wide horizons of corporate communication is the key to success. The lecture proved to be a huge morale booster for all the PG 1st semester students. The seminar had a huge impact on the attitude of the students.

(Mr. Suneel Keshwani)

Guest Lecture by Mr. C. V. Singh, Vice President, TATA Daewoo, South Korea

Integration of culture and management are the key forces behind any successful business acquisition. This was the view presented by Mr. C. V. Singh, Vice President, TATA Daewoo, South Korea during his guest lecture at SMS, Varanasi. Elaborating further on the point Mr. Singh said that impact of culture on business was the key consideration for TATA Motors during their negotiations for the acquisition of Daewoo commercial vehicle business of South Korea.

Mr. Singh told the students that in the process of acquiring any foreign company the main challenges are culture gap, language barriers, expectation of stake holders, the local government, suppliers and the workers of the company. Mr. Singh said that in the journey of excellence a company has to take both short term and long term decisions. They should have a common platform for product development, use same methods, technology and tools. The focus should also be on enterprise transformation and process improvements. He also said that smart companies spend their time and efforts to understand the customer and offer products which suit them on the parameters of quality and price.

Seminar on International Marketing & Strategy

To expose the students to the various dynamics of globalization SMS, Varanasi, organized an international seminar on international marketing and strategy on 31st Oct. 2009. The deliberation was made by Dr. Sri Beldona, Academic Program Director - Global Business Program, University of Dallas, U.S.A.

"Complete information is very essential for the overall development of management students" was the view expressed by Dr. S. Beldona. He said that it is very important for management students to understand very carefully the skill-set required to enter into the corporate world. Dr. Beldona advised the students to think out of the box when they are involved in any decision-making process. Dr. Beldona inspired the students to learn as to why the global prospective is important to be understood in the present business environment. Dr. Beldona in his deliberation highlighted the importance of going global, the changing landscape of global companies, the ways to capitalise on globalisation and importance of market research for success in going global.
